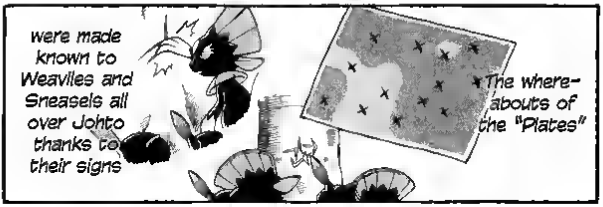
POCKET MONSTERS SPECIAL
The Nineth Chapter 9
HEART GOLD&SOUL SILVER

VS ARCEUS III



were made known to Weaviles and Sneasels all over Johto thanks to their signs
The whereabouts of the "Plates"

One after another, Silver collected the Plates
When they found a Plate, they either sent it back to Silver or notified him

This is it ...All 16

Then...

Flying, Bug, Rock, Ghost, Dragon, Dark, Steel, and Psychic...!!
Fire, Water, Grass, Electric, Ice, Fighting, Poison, Ground,
Let's hurry back to Gold!!
Not we have all 16 Pokemon type Plates!!

Fly south-west from Ecruteak!!
Gold said that that he was heading towards the Ruins of Alph!

What is it?

Chris!!

Silver ...
Can you hear me!?
Ugh

If I had only caught him... this wouldn't have...
Sorry
Were you hurt when Arceus fired at the gym?
Look at you...

and ended up like this
After that, I chased it too far but it didn't work...
I thought that it opened its heart to me...
It went inside my ball once...
Arceus !?
So that was Arceus

Huh!?
Thanks to you, I got all of the plates
Don't blame yourself for that
No
It's my fault that you and the gym were
Thank you
It's all because you allowed me to go to Mr. Morty by drawing Team Rocket's attention...
Why?
Don't worry about Arceus
Come on, we have to go

Gold is fight-ing it

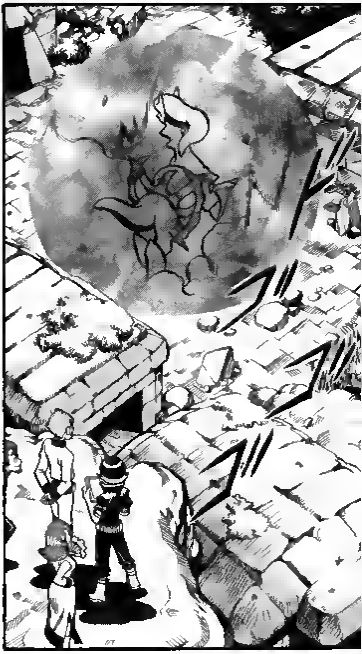
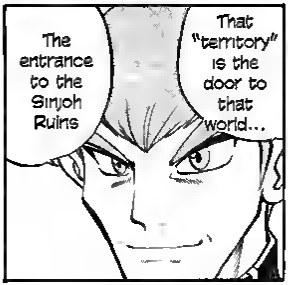
ドゴゴゴゴ

it's like a limbo between this world and another
A completely different space is overlapped onto the Ruins of Alph...
Arceus has made a separate "territory"



ドゴゴゴ



The entrance to the Sinjoh Ruins
That "territory" is the door to that world...

The whole territory is sinking!!
Have you found out how we're getting in?
I've completed the analysis. Let's go
!!
Hehe, late to the party, are we,
red-haired kid and capturer girl

Look, Silver!!
It's Gold and Arceus!!
What's that energy around it?
Yeah!!
Should we go in!?
The answer is obvious!
We have to get in, no matter what!!

Took you long enough!!
Heh!

Hwaa-achoo-oo!!!
dammit!!
Snow?
Ooh
So cold
H-Hwa-?
Ooh~ It sure is cold~ Where is this?
Gold!!
Yo!
Silver, Chris!
Heheh, I saw you guys come in! Good job making use of the opening I made!!

But where is this place?
It's like a ruin of some kind
Where's Arceus?
He was gone when I woke up
Well... I might have imagined this, but I saw Arceus react strangely when you two came in Hm, me too...
Like it hesitated on attacking for a moment
When we went inside the energy, this spot heated up...
This, huh...

Mr. Morty said that he saw an image of the 16 plates superimposed onto the silhouette of Arceus
Are these the Plates !?

No
Maybe there part of Arceus
Maybe these Plates once belonged to Arceus

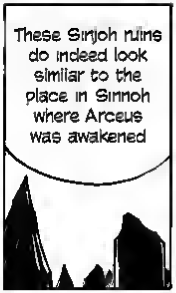
Let's go!!
Yes!!
たっ

we might know why he's so sad
but if we give Arceus the Plates,
I don't quite get all of it,

There's no doubt that Arceus went inside!!
In any case, we have to go inside the ruins

!!

These Sinjoh ruins... are in neither Sinnoh nor Johto



These Sinjoh ruins do indeed look similar to the place in Sinnoh where Arceus was awakened

Some scholars say that there was once a mass migration from Sinnoh to Johto that caused their cultures to mix together
Why are you here?

Ar-ceus!!
Arceus opened his heart and the route to the Sinjoh Ruins
Thanks to your well-meant attempts to understand Arceus,
I must thank you kids
That's why we never found it
I never considered that it could in a separate subspace
Come on, cough 'em up!
You also got all of the plates for us
Let me thank you too

Everything is here
He-heh
...Silver, give it to them Gold!!

on the Mystri Stage!!
Now, it's time to enshrine Arceus
